

The Admiral's Suite

The Admiral's Suite is a luxurious two bedroom, two bathroom waterfront apartment located on Hunter Street – the birthplace of Hobart Town.

One of Australia's most desirable and historic addresses, The Admiral's Suite is located within what is thought to be Australia's longest continuously inhabited building (circa 1825).

Situated beside the acclaimed Henry Jones Art Hotel, The Admiral's Suite boasts uninterrupted water views, sandstone walls, original timber beams, rich colours and textures, original artworks, and fine antiques.

This sumptuous, traditional feel is beautifully complemented by contemporary conveniences including a gourmet chef's kitchen and large outdoor entertaining deck.
